Larvotto is a district in Monaco known for its beaches and upscale residential areas.

The district is primarily a residential area characterized by luxurious apartments and high-end properties. Many affluent individuals choose Larvotto for its proximity to the beach, as well as its stunning views of the sea and the surrounding landscape.

Larvotto features a pleasant seaside promenade where residents and visitors can stroll, enjoy the views, and access various recreational facilities. There are also cafes and restaurants along the waterfront, offering a scenic place to dine.

Larvotto is conveniently located, allowing easy access to other areas of Monaco and the nearby French Riviera. The district's central location makes it a desirable place to live for those who want to be close to the city's amenities and attractions.
