terrace just off the open plan living and dining space, with a defined kitchen area. The kitchen, with its rich wooden cabinetry and marble countertops, contrasts beautifully with the apartment's earthy tones and the vibrant backdrop beyond the terrace.

The spacious bedroom also benefits from the views, complemented by plentiful natural light and ample storage. The space also includes a luxuriously fitted en-suite shower room, allowing for an invigorating start to the day.

Included with this apartment is a cellar and parking space, both coveted assets within the principality.

Fontvieille is a desirable Monégasque neighbourhood, known for being slightly quieter than other locations in Monaco while remaining within short walking distance from all of the action. Fontvieille residents enjoy a plethora of sophisticated bars and restaurants, and plenty of local conveniences all at their doorstep.
