Rare family home with spectacular views and vast terraces comprising a private swimming pool among lush greenery.

The property consists of 3 levels linked via stairs and a private elevator. This unique home includes a double living space, a large family kitchen, utility areas, 4 ensuite bedrooms and dressing rooms. All rooms benefit from plenty of natural light as the property has ideal south-western exposition and is bright all day. The top floor offers a large terrace with a pool that overlooks the sea, a summer kitchen and a spacious pergola, perfect for entertaining and dinning outdoors.

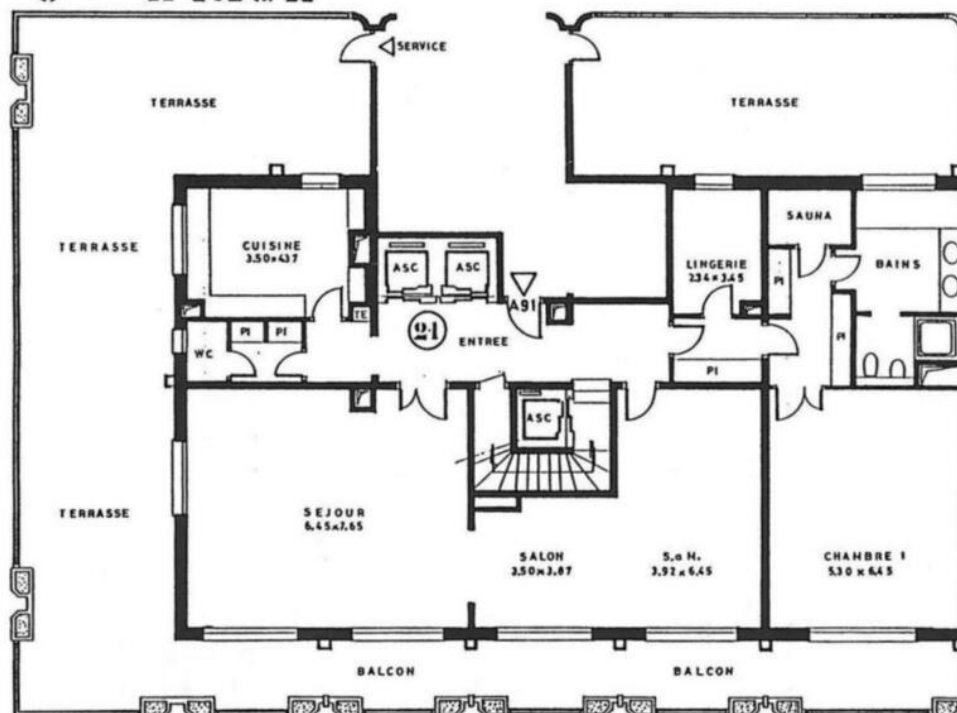

This is a perfect home for families with children who will be attending the International School of Monaco (ISM) which from September will be located in Larvotto hence in a short walking distance.
